Our Core Values

People noun peo·pl̩ | \ 'pē-pəl

All people matter...a lot. We love people, encourage fun, and earn trust by prioritizing people over profit.

We connect this value to our purpose by:

- Empowering people to discover, develop, and contribute their gifts and talents in a meaningful way.
- Listening to others with respect and empathy so we better understand their perspective.
- Showing a bias for action and welcoming accountability for the outcomes.

Together adverb to·gəth·ər | \ tə-'ge-t̩hər

Community is core...to everything. We are committed to creating connectivity, closing communication gaps, and putting community before self.

We connect this value to our purpose by:

- Behaving in a manner that recognizes teamwork as the fuel that allows ordinary people to attain extraordinary results.
- Inspiring people to serve each other by our example to each other.
- Placing the needs of our customers, vendors, teammates, families, neighbors and all the people we touch; before our own.

Food noun | 'füd

Food is fuel...for life. We passionately protect food systems, promote reducing hunger, and own our role in connecting people to food.

We connect this value to our purpose by:

- Understanding the food supply chain is our economic vehicle to increase our scope of influence on people and acting accordingly.
- Providing people an opportunity to serve others by connecting food to people both at work and at home.
- Committing to continuous improvement daily and taking seriously our role in the supply chain.
